

News and Services of the Hekman Library –February, 2007

Begin the Spring Semester with these new resources!

ECCO provides access to the digital images of every page of 150,000 books published between 1700 and 1799. With full-text searching of approximately 26 million pages, it gives researchers access to critical information in the fields of history, literature, religion, law, fine arts, science and more. The majority of works in ECCO are in the English language but there are also works printed in Dutch, French, German, Italian, Latin, Spanish and Welsh.

McGraw-Hill Encyclopedia of Science and Technology (the web site is called Access Science) is the most trusted and authoritative general science encyclopedia. It contains thousands of articles, 2,000 biographies, current bibliographies, and 110,000 definitions.

Directed primarily at academic researchers, Academic OneFile is a collection of more than 8,000 journals with full manual indexing, a robust backfile and coverage of a variety of academic disciplines -- from science, technology and medicine to the humanities. With the majority of the content peer-reviewed and available in full-text with no restrictions, users are able to access content quickly and conduct comprehensive research effortlessly. Content is provided in both HTML and PDF formats. To link to the resource: InfoTrac Academic One File

Reminder: FRISBEE FUN! The library is hosting the third annual Hekman Library Disc Golf Tournament. The 18 hole course will take you to all four floors of the library. The date is February 16, beginning at 8:30 p.m. Look for more information on the Hekman Library website.

Full Text Collections!

CSA in partnership with Sage publication brings you these full text collections in:

- Communication Studies
- Criminology
- Education
- Health Sciences
- Management & Organization Studies
- Materials Science
- Political Science
- Psychology
- Sociology
- Urban Studies & Planning

National Black History Month February 1-28 Recent Related Reference

Encyclopedia of African-American Culture and History, second edition, is revised and contains 1,300 alphabetically-arranged articles, an appendix of statistical data, primary source documents, photographs, and other valuable references.
E185 .E54 2006 V.1-V.2 Reference Material

Notable African American Writers assembles works of 80 novelists, short-story writers, playwrights, and poets from colonial America to today.
PS153 .N5 N68 2006 V.1-V.3

The Hekman Library has paper Grand Rapids City Tax forms for distribution, and we will have paper Michigan Tax forms soon. However the library will NOT have federal forms OR instructions in paper format because the IRS eliminated our library from their tax form distribution program. For links to online tax forms and instructions consult the Tax Forms link on the library home page.

CALVIN

The Hekman Library

The Library Privy

News and Services of the Hekman Library –February, 2007

Reminder: FRISBEE FUN! The library is hosting the third annual Hekman Library Disc Golf Tournament. The 18 hole course will take you to all four floors of the library. The date is February 16, beginning at 8:30 p.m. Look for more information on the Hekman Library website.