

News and Services of the Hekman Library –September, 2010

Hekman Library Director, Glenn Remelts, would like to welcome you to the Hekman Library!

The library staff is dedicated to making your experience in the library as profitable and painless as possible! Three words to describe the mission of the library staff - Sources, Assistance, and Hospitality.

- Sources: We have millions of sources - electronic books, electronic journal articles, print books, DVDs, maps. You name it, we have it. Google is a useful tool, but give our web site a try, too. You'll find some amazing tools and sources there.
- Assistance: This is one thing we certainly do better than Google! The sole reason a specialist sits at the Research Assistance Desk on the main floor is to help you become an effective and efficient researcher. Every library employee is committed to helping you master the complexities of the library and its resources. Ask!
- Hospitality: We'll do our best to make you feel at home while visiting the library. Give us feedback by clicking on "Comments" on the library's web site.

Need to find a journal article? Start with one of our exceptional databases.

From the library homepage under click on Research Databases to find over 100 trusted sources.

What are reserve materials?

Materials are placed on reserve by your professor to insure that each student has access to assigned or recommended reading. Reserve material is located behind the Circulation Desk on 2nd Floor and is retrieved by the circulation assistant.

Reserve material is on a two-hour, one-day, or three-day reserve.

Heading to Cokes and Clubs 2010?

Are you involved in one of the many clubs on campus? Stop by the Cokes and Clubs event on Tuesday, September 7 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. and look for the Hekman Library table. Check out how you can make money for your club at the same time learn a new skill to save you time with your research.
